

Cambrian Archaeological Association in association with Cardiff University

DARGANFOD – DISCOVERY:

a celebration of new archaeological research in Wales

Conference, Saturday 4th April 2020

Venue: John Percival Building, Cardiff University (Cathays Park), Colum Drive, Cardiff CF10 3EU

All bookings must be received by Friday 20th March 2020

Conference fee: £28 (£26 for CAA members) which includes lunch and refreshments. Student tickets at £10, without food or tea/coffee, are also available. All tickets should be booked in advance. The preferred method of payment is by cheque, but online booking by credit/debit card is also available on Eventbrite. Details of this are given on our website <https://cambrians.org.uk/> and are being sent to those on the CAA email list.

I wish to book ..... place(s) for the Conference and enclose a cheque for £ ....., payable to ‘Cambrian Arch. Assoc. Darganfod’ . I require tickets as follows:

Standard conference admission @ £28

Cambrian Archaeological Association member @ £26

Student (no refreshments or food) @ £10

Special dietary requirements.....

Name(s).....

E-mail ..... Telephone .....

Postal address.....

.....

Free car parking is available at the John Percival building/ Colum Drive car park but car registration details may be needed by the university. Please provide these below. Information about parking will be emailed to you shortly before the conference.

Car registration number.....

Make and model of car.....

Colour .....

---

Please send this form with your cheque to Dr Rhiannon Comeau, 21 Ulleswater Road, Southgate, London N14 7BL. E-mail enquiries can be sent to her at cambrians1846@gmail.com

Train travel: John Percival building is 5 minutes walk from Cathays station. If travelling by train, get a ticket to Cathays station rather than to Cardiff Central – it should not cost any extra. Cathays station is a 6 minute journey from Cardiff Central, with very frequent connections.